

FIELD USE APPLICATION

Please use this application to submit your request to rent a field from the City of Chino’s Community Services Department. In order to reserve a field, application must be submitted and paid a minimum of two weeks prior to the first date of use listed on the application. This application must be submitted with required paperwork either in person to the Ayala Park Operations Center or via email to fieldrentals@cityofchino.org, in accordance with the City of Chino’s first come, first served policy.

Submission of this application does not guarantee rental of facility.

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Requests will be valid for the duration of four-month allocation periods and will be split for signature/payment on a monthly basis.
2. Monthly payments must be made by the fifteenth (15th) day of the previous month (or subsequent business day). (Example: Fees for a January permit are due on December 15, fees for a February permit are due on January 15, and so on).
3. A certificate of liability insurance must be submitted when submitting a Field Use Permit Application.
4. Failure to submit payment or required paperwork may result in cancellation and forfeiture of permit.
5. If permit is cancelled, the next application in line will be selected and granted for the quad-month period.
6. If application is approved, representative will receive a permit. This permit must be carried on site during the entire reservation.
7. One-day reservations or tournaments require the submission of a Field Use Permit Application, a Special Event Permit Application, and a $250 down payment.
8. For more detailed information, please refer to the City of Chino Athletic Facility User Guide.
